NEWS -- Office of Supervisor Yvonne Brathwaite Burke

For release July 9, subject to Board approval of Agenda Item 42

IMPROVEMENTS PLANNED FOR RAILROAD CROSSINGS IN FLORENCE AREA

Los Angeles County Supervisor Yvonne Brathwaite Burke announced Board approval of an agreement with the Union Pacific Railroad (UPRR) to improve the railroad crossings at Nadeau Street and 60th Street in the Florence area. Concrete surface panels will be constructed adjacent to the railroad tracks to provide improved roadway surface at the track crossings, replacing deteriorating asphalt.

The County will provide UPRR with $174,086 for the project, and will also provide the necessary traffic control and roadway work.
